- Use the link to the proper date and time. There is a link for each separate day of the conference.

What happens when I arrive on the conference venue?:

- You will be assigned to a table on one of the floors.
 - If you microphone and camera are on, you will be able to talk with everyone else at your table.
- To move to a different table, double-click on another chair that is open at another table.
- There are separate floors with several tables per floor.
 - To move floors, just use the floor controls on the left side of the screen.

Who will I meet?:

Tables are categorized for vendors, sectors, or just reuniting with old friends. Feel free to visit all of the tables in the venue. To see a complete listing of each table for every floor, you can use the Table Directory in the upper left area of the screen.

- Everyone will see your chats unless you chat privately to a specific person.

Be sure to check out the links on the right and left side of the room for chances to explore and even win prizes.
